2017 APPLICATION FORM

The Eleanor Roosevelt Center Girls' Leadership Worldwide (GLW) program is an international, ten-day summer leadership program for high school girls who demonstrate leadership potential in their schools and communities. Participants from across the world of various cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds come together to acquire the knowledge, skills, and resources needed to exercise leadership rooted in the courage, compassion, and perseverance modeled by Eleanor Roosevelt. GLW consists of interactive workshops, presentations, discussions, and other hands-on training in specific leadership skills, including public speaking and team building.

Most of these experiences occur at Val-Kill, Eleanor Roosevelt's former country retreat in Hyde Park, NY. The girls also participate in several day trips including one to the United States Mission to the United Nations.

To benefit from this full, intense experience, participants must be mature, self-motivated and respectful. We would appreciate your thoughtful reflection on these and other qualities that will help us evaluate this applicant for our program. Please mention in your letter any aspects of the applicant's personality, character, or situation that you consider pertinent to our program.
