

HEALTH CARE REFORM

What does it REALLY mean?

With the premise of health care as a human right, this will be a day of exploring the impact of health care reform on women, small businesses, seniors, African-Americans, Latinos and Americans with disabilities. As leaders in their fields, featured speakers will illustrate, educate and debunk myths of health care reform.

Keynote Address
Geeta Desai, President, AAUW

TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 2011

THE HENRY A. WALLACE CENTER

(at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum, Hyde Park, New York)

8:30 AM TO 2:30 PM

Luncheon Speaker, Jamie Torres, US Health and Human Services Regional Director

Speakers & Workshop Leaders:

Susan Dooha, Executive Director, Center for Independence of the Disabled, NY

Margaret Moree, Director of Federal Affairs, The Business Council of NY State, Inc.

Michael Olender, Associate State Director, AARP

Jamie Torres, US HHS Regional Director (Region II–NY, NJ, PR, VI)

Lois Uttley, Executive Director, Raising Women's Voices

REGISTER: (845) 229-5302 or mmartinetti@ervk.org COST: $10 suggested donation

Complimentary Continental Breakfast

(If desired, please also order your box lunch for an additional $10 when you register.)

SPONSORED BY:

